

INTRODUCING Higher Education Administration

The new online professional development program for those who are new to higher education, designed by the Centre for Higher Education Research and Development (CHERD) at the University of Manitoba as the perfect complement to your onboarding efforts.

FROM CHERD

CHERD is nationally recognized for its quality professional development programs for university, college, and polytechnic administrators and managers including the Certificate in University and College Administration (CUCA), the University Management Course (UMC), the Senior University Administrators Course (SUAC), and the highly anticipated new Women in Academic Leadership program. Now we are introducing this new professional development opportunity designed to be a guided introduction to the unique world of higher education in Canada including its history and its complexities.

IT'S FOR YOUR TEAM

If you are a manager or human resources professional working in a Canadian university, college, or polytechnic, this is the program for your team.

Give the members of your team that extra edge and help them build their knowledge and confidence in their workplace. They will learn about the complexities of higher education including its history, culture, and students. They will consider the importance of Indigenization, and they will start to develop their leadership skills.

Support the success and careers of your team members with this relevant professional development program. Applications to the program and registration for the course are now open.

WHAT IT PROVIDES
