

INTRODUCING Higher Education Administration

The new online professional development program designed to be a guided introduction to the unique world of higher education.

IT'S FOR YOU

If you are new to working in a university, college, or polytechnic, this is the program for you.

With this program, you will take the initiative to learn more about your workplace including its history, culture, students, and important topics like Indigenization. You will also work on your leadership skills and network with colleagues. Apply for this relevant professional development program.

Higher Education Administration was designed for you to learn what you need to know to build a strong foundation for your career.

IT'S FOR YOUR TEAM

If you are a manager or human resources professional working in a Canadian university, college, or polytechnic, this is the program for your team.

Give the members of your team that extra edge and help them build their knowledge and confidence in their workplace. They will learn about the complexities of higher education including its history, culture, and students. They will consider the importance of Indigenization, and they will start to develop their leadership skills.

Support the success and careers of your team members with this relevant professional development program. Applications to the program and registration for the course are now open.

WHAT IT PROVIDES

- A university credential- a Letter of Accomplishment (LOA) from Extended Education at the U of M
- Experienced higher education professional facilitators from across Canada
- Insight into the unique world of higher education including its history and complexities, and the student population your institution serves
- A look at the importance of Indigenization and some ideas on how to contribute to the process
- The opportunity to build on their leadership skills
- Networking with colleagues from across Canada

OFFERED COMPLETELY ONLINE

The program consists of four courses that can be taken in any order:

- Introduction to Higher Education in Canada
- Students in Higher Education
- Indigenous Perspectives in Higher Education
- The Higher Education Administrative Professional